

Maths- measuring in ml and l

Today we did some practical measuring of litres and millilitres. We first had to estimate different amounts of water and then accurately measure them using jugs and measuring cylinders. It was lots of fun and a great way to practise our measuring skills!

