

Drill Exercises!

We've been learning about The Victorians in our history lessons. This week, we've been learning about the 'ragged schools set up by Lord Shaftsbury to ensure that all children received a basic education. We compared the school day of a Victorian child with our own and found them to be very different! We even had a go at our own Victorian PE lesson!

