

I Spy...

Continuing our work on senses, Ash Class explored their sense of sight this week. The children enjoyed making sensory bags using hair gel and interesting objects for them to spy, along with several other activities involving their sense of sight.

