

Character Muscles Morning

Today, we've been celebrating our character muscles at Woodstone. KS2 children were split into groups and sent to different classrooms to learn about our character muscles and why they're important. The children had a great morning whilst learning about empathy, teamwork, perseverance and more.