

Science – Rocks

We have been learning about the three main types of rocks and how they are formed. The children had opportunity to handle a range of different rocks.

