

Hibernate, Migrate or Adapt?

We have been learning about how animals, hibernate, migrate or adapt to survive winter. We enjoyed completing a carousel of activities to develop our learning. This included selecting suitable materials to show how animals adapt (e.g bubble wrap to show extra fat), making habitats for a selection of animals and sorting pictures of birds to show where they migrate from and to then identifying these countries on the globe.

