

Monday 10th November

Stonehenge Models

Pine class have been learning about prehistoric monuments and their significance. Today we focussed on Stonehenge, we considered how the Stone Age people built it and what they used it for. The children then constructed their own mini Stonehenge models using play dough.

