

Science- Rock Detectives

Today in Science we have been investigating rocks! We learned that rocks can be either sedimentary, igneous or metamorphic and what the characteristics of these are. We then tested a selection of rocks to see how hard they were by scratching it, how permeable they were and how buoyant by seeing if they would sink or not! It was lots of fun!

