

Muddy Forest School!

We have been continuing with our forest school sessions this half term and the children have been really enjoying it- especially getting muddy! They have been working hard on the different activities and demonstrating fantastic skills and team work!

