

Fire-lighting in the Woods

After a winter-themed hunt around the woods, the children enjoyed working on their fire lighting skills today. We were very impressed with their independence and perseverance!
We also liked having some free time on our new woodland swings!

