

Daily Learning Tasks

English

Apostrophes for possession

This week I will be trialing some online learning lessons. They will not have a topic focus but a skills focus.

Like the 'White Rose', follow the link or copy and paste into the search bar to access the lesson. Read the instructions carefully. It will tell you what to read, write, answer and watch.

Compulsory Topic Task

Science

Today we will be looking at rainforest animals. I have uploaded a power point for you to read. Using this information, complete the fact file on slide 3. You don't have to print the template, you can make one of your own if you would prefer.

You can also use the useful weblinks below:

Grammar

This week we will be exploring fronted adverbials.

A fronted adverbial is a word, phrase or clause that is used, like an adverb, to modify a verb or a clause. Basically, fronted adverbials are phrases or words at the start of a sentence which are used to describe the action that follows.

Use slide 4 to complete the task on slide 5

Optional Extended Task

Getting Helpful

We are getting ready for half term next week!

I would like to see you helping adults around the home! This could be by:

- Tidying your bedroom
- Tidying another room
- Hoovering
- Helping with dinner
- Gardening

It's always nice for parents to know how much you appreciate them so lets see you share a helping hand!

Send me pictures of you helping to:

Fronted Adverbials Writing Prompt

Using Fronted Adverbials in Independent Writing

Look at this picture taken of the London marathon.

Using some of the fronted adverbials in the table below, write a description of this picture. The first sentence has been done for you. Remember to always place a comma after the fronted adverbial to separate it from the main clause.

Time	Place	Manner
On Sunday 23rd April	Behind the metal barriers	With a determined look
As he was running	Below the beating sun	Feeling exhausted
Whilst the crowd cheered	On their T-shirts	Without slowing
