

Police Officer

Today we have been learning all about Police Officers and how they help to keep us safe. Partway through the day, we received an important message — there had been some trouble in the woods!

We quickly put on our detective hats and went to investigate. When we arrived, we found lots of clues. After looking carefully, we discovered what had happened — Goldilocks had been in the Three Bears' house and made a huge mess!

