

L.S. Lowry Watercolours

We've been learning about the famous artist, L.S. Lowry. We learned about his history and upbringing, how he grew up in an Industrial Manchester and often sketched normal scenes of people going to work in the factories or attending football matches.

We practiced using watercolours before sketching our scenes. We tried to capture the effects of the industrial revolution in England by painting factories or trains into idyllic countryside scenery.

