

Thursday 22nd May
We have welcomed some very special visitors in Acorn class this week! We waited patiently for 21 days whilst our eggs developed in the incubator and this week 11 of them hatched! We have loved holding and looking after our chicks and have learnt lots about life cycles too!

