

Maths – Money

This half term we have been looking at money in Maths. The children have been identifying the value of coins, converting pounds and pence, adding and subtracting coins and working out change.

