

14th September

We loved our first dough disco session today! Dough disco helps to strengthen our hands and fingers so we can be super writers. We enjoyed singing along and making different shapes with our playdough!

