

Science

Our topic in science is 'Living Things and Their Habitats'. Today, we went for a walk to our woods to see what living things we could identify and what their habitats were. We discovered lots of living things, including a ladybird, spider and worm, as well as different types of trees and fungi! The children loved investigating the woods and recording their findings.

