

Angus, a sports coach, talked to us about becoming a Playcoach for the KS1 children.

He gave us game cards to try out different activities to do with young children.

We then taught our game to another group.

We are now planning to run Playcoach sessions at lunchtimes.

