

Evacuees!

We had a visitor today who came to talk to us about World War 2. He brought with him a host of artefacts, maps and activities to take part in! These included maps of the areas in Leicestershire that were bombed during The Blitz.

He also bought gas masks, helmets, evacuation guides and a ration book activity to complete. We were able to handle the artefacts and learn a lot from our expert. Plus, he was impressed with our knowledge!