

4th September

Today we enjoyed creating a piece of collaborative artwork using marble painting. We chose the colours carefully and spread them around the paper using the marbles, looking carefully at the patterns they made. Then, we put all the paintings together to create one huge creation – it looks great!

