

Creswell Crags

Pine Class had a wonderful trip to Creswell Crags, to explore hidden caves within the limestone gorge. The children were split in to two tribes and all go the chance to explore Robin Hood's Cave, learn survival skills and rebuild the skeletons of Stone Age animals. The children had a wonderful time and it was a great way to revisit our learning about the Stone Age. Well done Pine Class!

