

Dough Disco

This week, the children had a wonderful time taking part in Dough Disco—a fun and interactive activity designed to support fine motor development. Using their own pots of playdough, they followed instructions to squash, roll, and shape the dough while singing along to familiar songs. It was fantastic to see some excellent listening and smart sitting on the carpet.

