

Forest School

This term we have started our Forest School sessions. We have lots of different activities to take part in in the next few weeks including Stone Age weapon and paintbrush making, den building, natural abstract art and of course the mud kitchen! Keep an eye out for more updates!

