

Thursday 11th April

Today, we spent time looking at the blossom on the trees around our school grounds. Then, we created these springtime tree paintings using our fingers to create the green leaf and pink blossom effect.

