

Friday 12th September
Today we enjoyed our first 'Reading Buddies' session with children from Maple class. We shared books together and practised our skills of reading aloud as well as helping younger children who are developing the skill of reading too.

