

For National Fitness Day, and to complement our PE lessons on 'Fitness', we designed and then tested out our own exercise circuits.

The exercises had to be based on the core elements of fitness: strength, stamina, balance, coordination, agility and flexibility.

It was hard work but lots of fun too!