

Making Ratios

In our current maths topic, we've been learning about ratios. We used cubes and other manipulatives to represent different ratios whilst discussing their relationship with fractions and percentages.

