

Thursday 3rd April

Following on from our work on our sense of sight in class, Ash Class completed yet another hunt in the woods today - a nature scavenger hunt! They then had a go at lighting a fire using a flint, where they showed great perseverance and determination. Finally, they enjoyed some tree climbing!

