

PE – Dance and Movement

The children had to create dance and movement inspired by the natural world. They had to move their body to represent a volcano, an earthquake, a tornado and a tsunami. They also had to move their body in response to some stimuli as I played a variety of different percussion instruments.

