

Science- simple electric circuits

In science today we learned about what a simple circuit is. We discussed the names of different components and their purpose, before exploring how we could use them to fulfil different challenges. These included making a bulb light, a buzzer sound and a motor spin. All children thoroughly enjoyed investigating and making different circuits and had lots of success!

