

Thursday 9th January 2025

Ash Class enjoyed a walk in the woods today, identifying and discussing all aspect of nature. We listened to the story 'Owl Babies' before making our own owls out of the pine cones we had found on the nature walk. We then decided to make little nests for our birds by using vegetable peelers on sticks.

Good concentrating!

Great Creativity!

