

Making Boats

Year 1 have enjoyed their new Design project. They were asked to design a boat. They used previous learning to think about different materials which would float. They then tested their boats and spent time thinking about what went well and what they could do to improve them.

