

Thursday 23rd January 2025

To celebrate Lunar New Year, the year of the snake, Ash class completed some snake activities in the woods. We followed the giant blue snake around the woods, some children closed their eyes and trusted their friends to tell them if there were any logs to step over ahead! Ash class also helped to make (and play) a game of snakes and ladders using natural resources.

Fantastic concentration!

Great Courage!

