

Caterpillars, Snails & Worms!!

This week the children have been joined in class by thirty two caterpillars, six worms and two snails. We are watching the caterpillars closely as they begin to form a cocoon and we are excited to see their transformation into butterflies. Our worm and snail world are also being observed closely, tracking their movement each day.

