

Maths- measuring in grams and kilograms

Today in maths we had a practical lesson measuring different classroom items. We used a variety of different scales including balancing scales, digital scales and mechanical scales to weigh different items and record how many kilograms and grams each item was. It was lots of fun!

