

Thursday 18th January

Today we have been investigating how our trains move down the guttering pipes at different heights. We discovered that the higher the guttering pipe was tilted, the faster the train moved and the further it travelled. We had great fun investigating together!

