

The most annoying animal in the world,
Is not the snake with its tail unfurled.
Not the dog - biting, swiping or barking,
Or the crow with its deep cawing.
Thomas

You'd think the fast fly with its depressing drone,
The world shall agree that it makes us moan.

It's got the sharpest fangs you've ever seen,

And the most venomous bite there ever has been!

Alfie M

Not the evil stare in the darkness,
Of a vulture feeding on a carcass.
The bear that will flatten you with one swing,
The wasp that could irritate you with one sting.      Ons

But much more irksome than all of these,

Is the diminutive moszi sipping your blood with ease.

Like a lethal vampire roaming around,

Murdering millions and feeling appallingly proud.

Estee

A seagull is worse than a dog with a slimy lick,
And mini-beasts you can murder with just one flick.
Sadly, it will always snatch your ice-cream,
Even when you duck, dance and dramatically scream. Masemani
