

14.09.26

Place Value

Pine Class have been working hard in our maths lessons using base ten, arrow cards and place value counters to represent hundreds, tens and ones. The children have been exploring how to make the same number in different ways.

Well done everyone!