

Paper Aeroplane

This week, Acorn Class have been learning about aeroplanes! The children showed excellent listening skills today as they followed step-by-step instructions to make their very own paper aeroplane. We then took them into the hall to test them out and see how far they could fly.

