

Wednesday 20th September
Barefoot walk

Today we have been learning all about our five senses. We used our sense of touch during our barefoot walk and talked about the different textures we could feel. We walked through grass, bark, water and fur and enjoyed feeling the different textures on our feet!

