

Taking our Learning Outdoors...

Ash Class have been using materials creatively to make self-portraits in different ways. We took our learning outside and had a go at making portraits using natural materials. We made some brilliant land-art and enjoyed using the potato peelers to make some stick people!

