

British Science Week 2025

CAMOUFLAGE CATERPILLARS

The children in Acorn class have been collecting caterpillars made from different coloured strands of wool hidden in the grass. They were challenged to think like hungry birds and find them. We discussed how the colour of the wool affected how easy they were to find. Great work!

