

 BRITISH SCIENCE WEEK
7-16 March 2025

AMAZING ANIMAL ADAPTATIONS!

Rowan Class enjoyed looking at different animals and how they have adapted to survive and thrive in their habitat. As a class we spent time learning camouflage. We all thought about animals which may be able to camouflage in the woods. We used green, brown and black to design our own animals which were then hidden in the woods. During our forest school session we had fun trying to find all of our camouflaged animals.

