

Splendid Smells

This week, we've been diving into the fascinating world of our olfactory system - our sense of smell! After learning how we smell different odors, we put our noses to the test, exploring 24 unique scents. We described each aroma, identified our favourites (and least favourites), and ended the week with a fun challenge: recognising smells without peeking! Additionally, we categorised some of the scents into four groups. Throughout the week, we have enjoyed playing with scented playdough and experimenting with water infused with various herbal tea bags.
