

Thursday 20th March 2025

It was a nice sunny day for our Forest School session today. The children enjoyed hunting for paper bear parts and piecing them together. They also made some 'wands' using potato peelers which they loved playing in the woods with. There was just enough time left to do some tree-climbing!

