

Road Safety

On Thursday 24th September we had a visit from Sophie who is a road safety officer. She spoke to us about the importance of being careful when we are out and about by ourselves, particularly when crossing roads. We had to be collision investigators and work out why an accident happened, who was at fault and how it could have been avoided.

