

Reception have been learning about how to grow and look after a plant. Today the children have planted their own cress seeds, using cotton wool, water and a pot. The children will ensure their cress gets enough sunlight and water and they will closely observe the growth of their cress.

15.04.24 - Science

Cress!
Cress!
Cress!