

Reading Buddies

This afternoon the children in Cedar Class paired with the children in Maple Class to have a reading session together! The children really enjoyed the opportunities to share their books and read to each other.

