English
Animal description
This week, we will be working towards a fun animal description, without saying what the animal is!

Good descriptive writing includes many vivid sensory details that paint a picture and appeals to all of the reader's senses of sight, hearing, touch, smell and taste when appropriate.

Today I want you to explore the different senses! Now you have your animal, I want you to complete the activity on slide 3 thinking about what the animal might, hear, see, taste, touch and smell…

Remember, don't send it!
I will guess them all when the description is written!

Smell | Sight
Touch | Hear
Taste

Spellings:

Spelling pattern – ('shun' sound spelt as sion)

What Is a Subordinating Conjunction?

A subordinating conjunction is a word which still links two clauses together in a sentence, but the subordinate clause it adds does not make sense on its own.

Let's look at a few examples:

I will be late if I don't get on the next bus.

Subordinate Clause

'I will be late' is the main clause. This clause makes sense on its own. The subordinating conjunction in this sentence is 'if'. It starts the subordinate clause.

'if I don't get on the next bus' is the subordinate clause. This doesn't make sense on its own but does add extra information to the main clause.

Subordinating Conjunctions

Here are 10 of the most common subordinating conjunctions. They are used at the beginning of a subordinating clause which is a clause that doesn't make sense on its own.

if since as when although while after before until because

I SAWAWABUB

Subordinating Conjunction Jigsaws

I SAW A WABUB!

Use your super sentence writing skills to create a complex (multi-clause) sentence using different subordinating conjunctions. Read the main clause on the puzzle pieces, add an appropriate subordinating conjunction and then add your own subordinate clause. The first one is done for you as an example.

1. The cold wind blew violently _____after_____ the tornado hit the village. _____

2. The relaxed man snored on his sofa _____ _____

3. Florence jumped high into the air _____ _____

4. I hate Sundays _____ _____
