

Music- Parents visit our Ukulele lesson!

Today was very exciting as some of Cedar class's parents came to watch our ukulele lesson! This was a chance for them to see what a music lesson looks like, how the children are learning to play the instrument and see how good they already are! The children demonstrated their skills beautifully and we were all very proud of them!

We also began learning some Christmas songs today!

